

The Greatest Crimes of All Time!

A man loves the game of chess, then he kills 48 people and misses his target: he wanted to murder 64 people, as many as a chessboard has squares.

An elderly lady searches through personal ads as a caregiver for wealthy and care-dependent people. Afterwards she makes them sign over property, puts them to sleep with drugs, wraps them in ice-cold towels and lets them freeze to death.

According to his ex-girlfriend, a "nice, caring man" pleads "not guilty" in court, but he is not quite so innocent. On the pig breeder's farm, the police find 26 female corpses.

Many unbelievable stories, but they are all true.

Murders, kidnappings, extortions and hostage-takings: "The Greatest Crimes of All Time" documents crimes that attracted a lot of worldwide attention and to this day the public as well as the investigators and victims can't get over them.

Based on exclusive archive material, original recordings and interviews with investigators and experts, the 10-part documentary series sheds light on the worst crimes of all time, all cases that shocked the world.
